

Sudbury & District Labour Council
Labour's Voice in the Community

Conseil du Travail de Sudbury et du District
La voix des travailleurs dans la communauté

Sudbury and District Labour Council Bursary

The labour movement is deeply rooted within the Sudbury community.
In recognition that young workers are our future and education is empowerment, the Sudbury and District Labour Council is offering one

$400 bursary

This bursary is open to all graduating high school students in the Sudbury area who are planning to pursue post secondary education.

To be eligible for this award, simply tell us:

What does labour activism mean to you?
Or
What is a union's role in Health & Safety?

Essays must be a minimum of 500 words to a maximum of 1000 words.

Submission Deadline: April 10th, 2011

Submissions to be forwarded to
The Sudbury & District Labour Council
109 Elm Street, Suite 209
Sudbury, Ontario
P3C 1T4
sdlc@persona.ca

For further Information please contact the SDLC office (705) 674-1223 / sdlc@persona.ca