On June 12th, 2012, Mine Mill & Smelter Workers Union Local 598/CAW will be hosting a very special seminar on "Mental Illness" (free of charge) with guest speaker MIKE SANTORO. Mike was diagnosed with schizo-affective disorder and has been living with this severe and persistent mental illness for more than 25 years. He's had to deal with this difficulty on a daily basis. Mike has shown the way to others by overcoming many difficulties of his own and in doing this, he is fulfilling his dreams of helping others. His focus is to "never give up".

Everyone is invited to come out and hear first-hand what Mike has to say about mental illness. It is sure to be a very informative and intimate evening for everyone.

Where: Mine Mill Local 598/CAW – Craftshop
2550 Richard Lake Drive (at the back of the Mine Mill Campgrounds)
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Date: June 12th, 2012

To learn more about Mr. Santoro and his Canada-wide tour, please visit his website at www.mikesstory.com
